- Permission: Museum of the Bible grants permission for one-time, non-exclusive use in one publication within a specified territory only for the purpose applied for in writing by the purchaser on the Rights and Reproduction Conditions. Reprints, new editions, and other projects and products require new application for use. In authorizing the publication of an item, MOTB does not surrender its own right, title ownership, right to publish, or grant permission to others the right to do so.

Rights of Refusal: Museum of the Bible reserves the right to decline to provide items to applicants who have not complied with its policies or whose products are deemed unacceptable for any reason.

Alteration: Items supplied may not be cropped, distorted, superimposed on any other item, or modified in any way without written permission from Museum of the Bible.

Proofs: Museum of the Bible reserves the right to examine proofs and captions prior to final publication approval.

Digital Media: Permission for electronic publication (eBooks, CD-ROM, web pages, online databases, etc.) will only be granted for publication in a format that is secured to prevent unauthorized downloading, copying, or manipulation of content.

Gratis Copy: The publisher or purchaser shall furnish, without charge, to Museum of the Bible two (2) copies of the publication in which the item appears.

Disclaimer: Museum of the Bible assumes no responsibility for infraction of copyright laws, invasion of privacy, or improper or illegal use that may arise from reproduction of the item. Responsibility for obtaining any third-party permission, if necessary, rests solely with the user.

The purchaser's signature, payment, or reproduction of the item shall constitute proof of purchaser's agreement to all conditions stated herein.

NOTICE WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS: The copyright law of the United States (title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes beyond "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. Museum of the Bible reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
